

Examples

These are just examples of what the comments could look like. There are many different ways of completing the Canine Comments. Please use the question stems on the bookmarks provided to support your child in creating their comment.

Inference Iggy

Inference Iggy - I think that Matilda's dad is feeling annoyed on page 6 because he is shouting since there is a lot of exclamation marks.

"Daddy," she said, "do you think you can buy me a book?"
"A book?" he said. "What do you want a glowing book for?"

"To read, Daddy."

"What's wrong with the telly, for heaven's sake? We've got a lovely telly with a twelve-inch screen and now you come asking for a book! You're getting spoiled, my girl!"

Porsha.

Arlo the Author

Arlo Author - I think that Lily Alone is written to show children how lucky we are to have parents who care for us. This is because her mum left to go on holiday thinking that Mickey was looking after her children when he wasn't. He was in Scotland!

Shy.

Vocabulary Victor

Sea quest

Vocabulary Victor

The author has chosen the word mythical to describe how old the town of Amora is. The author has chosen the word cyber to describe the abilities of the squid so he is a robot squid. The author has used the word mechanical to describe the appearance of Max's dog Ripper.

Summarising Sheba

In the Folk Of The Faraway Tree, Connie, who is very curious and a bit spoilt visits Joe, Frannie and Beth. Connie refuses to believe that Moon-face and the other are real at all.
When she gets to Moon-face's, she accidentally fell down the Slippery-slip, without a cushion! Then she goes to the land of marvels, at the top of the tree, just as it moves away!

- Jake G